ACHIEVEMENTS

- Bus advertisement for Snowboard Connection for a "Fit Matters" campaign. I managed & acquired visual assets. I created layouts, and distributed adds to the advertising agency Titan360 located here in Seattle (2014)
- Apprenticed at The Foundry clothing company as a designer/silkscreener. (2013)
- For two years, I worked at the Piranha Shop as an event rental and communal studio space supervisor. I provided technological support, maintained facilities, and hosted and/or supervised events. (2011-2013)

ABOUT

I have been involved in the action sports industry for over seven years. I am detail oriented, self disciplined, creative, honest. I also have more than ten years of academic artistic training. I am able to use photo equipment, and I am proficient with Adobe creative suite (CS6). I am savvy with social media.

EXPERIENCE

Burton Snowboards - Showroom coordinator/ social media coordinator - Seattle
(Aug 2014 – May 2015)

Managing samples for sales representatives. Assisting with product demos, and events. Creating original content for social media accounts.

The Foundry Clothing Co. - Digital media production/ product production- Seattle
(Jan 2014 – Aug 2014)

Generating and managing social media platforms. I photograph products for catalog creation, and shoot video for our web commercials. I also help with the print shop day to day tasks, such as print pre/post-production.

Snowboard Connection – Visual Dir. – Seattle, WA
(Sept 2013 – July 2014)

Creating private label product (hats, t-shirts, stickers, die cuts, etc). Working with team manager to promote events and accomplishments of our sponsored riders. Photographing and publicizing featured product for our social media outlets.
